

PETER BRUM FAMILY OF FINE IMPORTED GERMAN WINES

PETER BRUM FAMILY OF NOBLESSE GERMAN WINES

Brand Name/History - BRUM stands for success, continuity, and nobility. PETER comes from the founder of the company and dates back to 1636, when PETER founded his company in Germany. The term Noblesse indicates the wine comes from premium, noble grapes. Origin of these premium grapes can be traced to Germany's Rheinhessen and Mosel-Saar-Ruwer.

Type	Vino Noire, Dornfelder
Comments	Qualitätswein b.A. - The number #1 selling quality red wine in Germany. It is a hybrid grape whose origin is German, bred initially from Helfensteiner and Heroldrube grapes. An elegantly rich dark color with texture like velvet. Because of the dark color, the Dornfelder grape was often used for blending pale reds.
Growing Area	Germany Rheinhessen
Alc. By Volume	11%
Taste	Smooth and harmonic fruity aromas, miles of cherries and berries; beautifully light but well rounded finish.
Recommendation	Perfect with all types of game, any dark meats, and pasta/red sauces. For dessert, try with dark chocolate or chocolate cheesecake. Best served lightly chilled.

Type	Bacchus, White Wine A varietal named after the Roman God of wine.
Comments	Qualitätswein b. A. - This grape is grown predominantly on the hillsides of the Rhine valley. Due to it's distinctive fruitness this grape was planted some decades ago to meet particular demand in the wine market. Derived from Müller-Thurgau, Riesling and Sylvaner. Adaptable to wide range of climates (Western Canada, England and Germany).
Growing Area	Germany Rheinhessen
Alc. By Volume	9.5%
Taste	Mainly vinified to be a sweet wine. Fruity style wine with quite evident notes of Muscat/pear in flavour as well as bouquet. Tends to be low in acidity. Has the ability to reach Auslese style or even higher sugar levels in good years.
Recommendation	Companion to creamy dessert dishes and light salads; also spicy, soft cheeses. Perfect for Asian cuisine.
